PLAN LECTURE BY DR. NEMETHY

Academy of the Assumption alumnae living in Wellesley (left to right): Ellen Nelson, Betsy DeLone and Mrs. Charles Anderson discuss preparations for a lecture entitled "Karl Marx, Father of Communism," to be given by Dr. Anthony Nemethy. Dr. Nemethy, distinguished scholar and learned speaker, is Associate Professor of Economics and Sociology at Newton College of the Sacred Heart. The lecture will be given at the Academy of the Assumption, Wellesley Hills, on Wednesday evening, April 29, at 8:30. A discussion period will follow the lecture. Anyone interested in this timely subject is cordially invited. Tickets are available at the door.

Publicity Head Named, Residential Teams Set For United Fund Drive

Publicity Chairman for the 1959 United Fund Campaign in Wellesley will be C. Jay Lafferty, Jr., 23 Southgate road, it was announced by Hilton Jayne, General Chairman for the Wellesley area. It was also announced that the appointment of Precinct Chairmen, who will help to direct the residential drive under Mr. and Mrs. Howard E. Hansen, is expected to be completed this week.

Mr. Lafferty, who is an account executive with Kenyon & Eckhardt, Inc., a New York advertising agency with offices in Boston, is also a director of the Wellesley Chapter of the American Red Cross and a member of the Christian Education Committee at the Wellesley Congregational Church. For a year following his graduation from Harvard in 1944, he was a member of the Townman's editorial and advertising staff.

The organization of the team which will head up the residential drive was all but complete last week end, according to Mr. and Mrs. Howard E. Hansen, Residential Co-Chairmen. With five of the six precinct chairmanships filled, the selection of district directors and captains has already begun in some precincts.
